CORAM : V.M. KANADE, J.

DATED : 10th JULY, 2007.

P.C:-

1. Learned counsel for the Appellants submits that he has learnt that the parties have settled the matter and therefore, the present Appeal has become infructuous. He has tendered a xerox copy of the consent terms which is taken on record. These consent terms are filed in a separate suit which was filed against the present Plaintiffs who were Defendant Nos.1 to 8 in the said suit. He submits that he has not received any written instructions from his clients in spite of efforts being made. Second Appeal is, therefore, disposed of as it has become infructuous. Civil Application is also disposed of accordingly.
